"HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, MARCH, 20th, 1818.

Another Rise on Medical Tickets.

The demand still continuing for tickets in this popular lottery, and the few remaining for sale, has caused an advance in the price to Twelve dollars, which however will not continue longer than the 31st inst. on which day the drawing will commence. and on the opening of the wheels, the price will be further advanced to FIFTEEN DOLLARS—speedy application therefore, is necessary to procure chances at the present rate—ORDERS, addressed to this office, as usual, will meet with the most prompt attention, enclosing the cash or prize tickets, post paid.

Robbery of the Mail on the night of the 11th.

To facilitate the transmission of the Eastern mail over the very bad roads between this city and Philadelphia, it has been conveyed for some time past in a light carriage usually called a Dearborn, drawn by four horses. Yesterday Mr. Ludlow, being in this city, and anxious to proceed to the Eastward as speedily as possible, obtained permission to accompany the driver in the mail carriage as far as Havre-de-Grace. The mail left this city as usual about three o'clock in the afternoon, and proceeded on, to within about two miles of Havre-de-Grace, it being then about 11 o'clock, when the horses were stopped by a fence which had been made with rails across the road. Three men, dressed like sailors, two with hats on, the third without a hat, having a handkerchief tied round his head, and all armed with double barrelled pistols and dirks, approached together, demanded that the mail should be delivered to them and threatened instant death to Mr. Ludlow and the driver if they resisted. They first bound Mr. Ludlow and the driver to two trees in the adjoining wood, into which they drove the carriage, took the mail out and very deliberately opened all the letters.

They were thus engaged for several hours, and obtained from the letters which they opened, a large amount of bank notes, which they shewed to Mr. Ludlow, and appeared to be much gratified by their success. About three o'clock in the morning, the robbers unbound Mr. Ludlow and the driver from the trees, and tied them to the carriage, from which they took the horses; each of the three mounted one, and the fourth they led off with them in the direction to Baltimore. Mr. Ludlow and the driver, having released themselves, proceeded on to Havre-de-Grace, from which place the former despatched a letter to Mr. John H. Barney, of this city, giving an account of the robbery.

The robbers were so well satisfied with the booty obtained from the mail, that they did not attempt to rob Mr. Ludlow, who had a considerable sum of money about his person. The horse which they led off was found this morning near Bush, but no trace has been discovered of the other three horses or of the robbers.

March 18th.

THE ROBBERS DETECTED!!!

This morning, about 9 o'clock, two persons of suspicious appearance, called at the clothing store of Messrs. BERTEAU & DUMAS, corner of Water and South streets, and immediately bargained for a complete suit of cloths for each; and upon their bills being presented, they made a large show of money. Arrangements were made to keep them in waiting until notice was given to a magistrate and officer, by whom they were immediately arrested; upon which they conveyed a package of bills behind the counter.

They were taken before Judge Houston, of the U. S. District Court, for examination, which is now going on, half past 1 o'clock. The amount of bills, drafts and checks found upon them is about $20,000, principally of the branches of the U. S. Bank, south of Baltimore; and great quantities of lottery tickets. None of the money recovered, belonged to the Baltimore mail—some drafts, we observed, were from Richmond.

The two fellows are known journeymen tailors and have been employed in this city. One says his name is JOSEPH THOMPSON HARE, aged 32 years; the other LEWIS HARE, his brother, only 20 years of age. They state they have a brother living in Lynchburg, Vir. and a brother-in-law by the name of Dorsey, at Ellicott's mills; and both pretend they have just arrived from Washington. Pistols, a dirk, powder and balls, were found upon them; and they had on the jackets and trowsers mentioned in Mr. Ludlow's letter, with new coats over them. Their trowsers were dirty and muddy, as might be expected of those who had been travelling on the road. They had on new hats, bought this morning of Mr. JACOB ROGERS.—They will be committed for trial. One fellow yet remains at large.

They are both small, slender men; and although the eldest has a bad countenance, we should not suppose them to possess courage enough for such a daring enterprise. A person of moderate strength could easily manage them both.

P. S.—2 o'clock, P. M.—The prisoners have just been put in irons and conducted to prison.
